1. On 31 May 1952, 35 x 120-mm mortars, 60 soldiers and 10 trucks, [ ] 25X1C
[ ] which [ ] had just been unloaded 25X1 were seen at the railroad station of Altes Lager, 3 km northwest of Jueterbog (N 52/E 69). (1) A train was loaded with 18 trucks [ ] 25X1
[ ] a radio truck, an ambulance, a sedan and about 120 soldiers at the railroad station at the same time, while 21 [ ] trucks and about 25 to 30 soldiers were loaded on a second train. (2)
2. On 17 May 1952, the finance office in Spremberg (O 52/A 54) was vacated on Soviet orders within several hours. A komendatura was to be established there. (3)
3. On 18 May, [ ] the telephone lines extending from the Hubertus Kaserne and Bluecher Kaserne on Fleningerweg, Naumburg (N 52/J 89), toward the Lossa (N 52/J 59) troop training grounds had been removed except for a four-wire telephone line which extended from the Naumburg Oberlandesgericht (provincial court) on Domplatz toward Lossa. (4) [ ] a board fence was being built around the camp. On 22 May, a flatcar carrying an SU-100 gun [ ] was coupled to the regular train which departs from Naumburg in the direction of Lossa at 8 a.m. (5)
4. [ ]
[ ] the former Sonnenstein asylum for the insane near Pirna (N 51/F 38) had been vacated and was to house troop headquarters which came from Pankow or Karlshorst near Berlin. [ ] the barracks installations in Pirna would also be occupied. (6)
- Comments.
- (1) [ ] elements of the unidentified mortar regiment of the 25th Tank Div which moved from Prenzlau to Jueterbog. Compared with the number of mortars, the number of personnel appears too low. The number of mortars was apparently reported incorrectly.
- (2) [ ] army troops of the Third Gds Necz Army. In conjunction with the transfer of these units from Wuensdorf to Jueterbog which is now under way, detraining appears more credible than entraining.
- (3) Four additional reports concerning the establishment of komendaturas in small localities in the Soviet Zone of Germany have been received since mid-May 1952.
